BLUEMOON 20

CONTRA DANCE WEEKEND

Huntsville Alabama
May 19 - 21, 2017
 Presented by North Alabama
 Country Dance Society

Wild Rumpus Deborah Clark Colon (fiddle), Karl Clark Colon (guitar), and Bob Douglas (drums & percussion).

When Wild Rumpus explodes together you get unstoppable insane groove music: prepare to become Frenzied Flying Feet Fiends complete with relentless funk, ceaseless beats, and last-all-weekend smiles. Deborah and Karl (Changeling) have blistered both sides of the Atlantic for many years with high-energy Celtic/Contra music. Bobby has rocked beats from Afro-pop, reggae, and jazz across the nation in The Coffee Zombies contra band.

(Demo track <http://www.madcelts.com/mp3s/10000-bees.mp3>)

Carol Ormand is beloved throughout the dance community for her smooth and unflappable style, wickedly fun dances, and penchant for keeping all the dancers on the floor smiling. Her delightful dance selections and concise, relaxed teaching style will keep you coming back for more. Carol has been calling contras and squares since 1990, and calls at weekends and festivals across the U.S. and abroad. (<http://carolormand.com>)

Tim Lamm & Paula Harrison have taught dance as a duo across the east including the Dance Flurry Festival (NY), the Scott Joplin Ragtime Festival (MO), and several years at the Christmas Country Dance School (Berea, KY). Their repertoire of couples dancing includes Renaissance, Baroque, English, Appalachian, and Scandinavian. Join them this weekend for a Contra Waltz Workshop!
